

AAA to “lend a paw” to AWA

Two local businesses team up for Pet Adoption Day on June 21

AAA South Jersey and the Animal Welfare Association (AWA) are pairing up to host a Pet Adoption Day on Saturday, June 21. The event will be held at AAA South Jersey headquarters, located at 700 Laurel Oak Road in Voorhees, from 10:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

A variety of pets will be available from AWA for on-site adoptions. Animals available during the event will include dogs, puppies, cats. The animals will be in the lobby of the AAA South Jersey building.

“This type of event provides an excellent showcase for the outstanding services available from both organizations,” said Carol Scott, President and CEO of AAA South Jersey. “Our members, can learn the valuable resources that the Animal Welfare Association offers to pet owners and animal lovers.”

Adoption fees range from $15 to about $200, depending on the type of pet and its age. Cats and dogs offered for adoption have been spayed or neutered, micro-chipped, have up-to-date vaccinations, and come with one month of free pet insurance. Cats and Dogs are required to go home with a collar, tag and leash or carrier, all of which will be available for purchase on-site.
