Animal Alliance of Camden County Launches Pet Food Pantry

CAMDEN COUNTY, NJ – A community pet food assistance program supported by the Animal Alliance of Camden County will launch on Saturday, April 11th, 2015. The Animal Alliance of Camden County is a partnership of Camden County Shared Services and local animal welfare agencies that include Animal Adoption Center, Voorhees Animal Orphanage, Animal Welfare Association, Camden County Animal Shelter, and Independent Animal Control. Alliance members share a common goal of finding homes for unwanted and neglected animals, including efforts to keep owned pets with their families.

Chris Harris, Shelter Director at Animal Adoption Center says, “As the Alliance’s first cooperative program, we are extremely excited to unite in a collective effort to help pets and pet families.”

Camden County Pet Food Pantry’s purpose is to keep pets with their families by offering food assistance. Owners surrender pets to local shelters regularly, and financial hardship is a common reason for doing so. The Alliance seeks to help Camden County residents keep pets in their homes by providing nutritional assistance to those in need. The only requirement is a need for assistance in providing food for a pet.

Camden County Pet Food Pantry locations will be open to the public from 11 AM to 1 PM for food pick-up on the second Saturday of every month, starting Saturday, April 11th, 2015.
